

Futuna
Open Days &
Public Talks

30–31 October
2021

Retaining Heritage

Saturday 30 October

11am – 4pm Chapel Open for Public Viewing

11:30am – 12pm Guided Tour of Chapel

2pm Public Talk

Virtual Futuna

Virtual Futuna examines the photogrammetry documentation of heritage buildings and its potential application in research studies and public dissemination.

Presenters: Prof. Marc Aurel Schnabel,
Michael Weir, Katie Scheid.

20 CPD Points

Book now for Virtual Futuna

Sunday 31 October

11am – 4pm Chapel Open for Public Viewing

11:30am – 12pm Guided Tour of Chapel

2pm & 3pm Public Talks

Art of Restoration

Carolina Izzo talks about her restoration of the Futuna Christ Figure and upcoming restoration of the Stations of the Cross Frieze, both works in the Chapel by New Zealand artist Jim Allen.

Presenter: Carolina Izzo
Art Conservator, Studio Izzo

10 CPD Points

Book now for Carolina Izzo talk

Hide It or Show It

An illustrated presentation entitled Hide It or Show It which talks about examples of the seismic strengthening of significant heritage buildings in Wellington.

Presenter: Alistair Cattnach
Structural Engineer, Dunning Thornton

10 CPD Points

Book now for Alistair Cattnach talk

Koha Entry

Futuna Chapel, 67 Futuna Close, Karori

No public parking on site, all parking in Friend St.

40 CPD Points for NZ Registered Architects

Public Talks

All public talks will be live-streamed.

Tickets available for both in-person attendance with koha, and live-streaming link. Book now for Virtual Futuna and Carolina Izzo & Alistair Cattnach talks.

Please Note:

There will be a 50 'in-person' ticket limit under Level 2 Covid Restrictions. The live-streaming link will be sent out to registrants 24 hours before each talk.

For more details, visit futunatrust.org.nz