

HISTORIC THORNDON HOUSES

❖ Literature ❖ Music ❖ Art ❖

OPEN DAY

SATURDAY 1 NOVEMBER 2020

1.00pm to 4.00pm

Combined Open Day
at three listed heritage buildings in Thorndon.
Easy walking distance from each other.

Visit one, two or all three.
No entry fees, but a koha at the houses would be appreciated.

RANDELL COTTAGE 1867

14 St Mary Street

Cottage and garden open, with a casual afternoon tea served.

Readings in the garden
on the hour from 1.30pm.

Hosted by the Randell Cottage Writers Trust and Friends with writer-in-residence, Michalia Arathimos.

LILBURN HOUSE 1951

22 Ascot Street

House and garden open,
with a piece of Lilburn's 105th birthday cake.

There will be musical recitals at 2.00 and 3.00pm.

Hosted by the Composer-in-Residence Salina Fisher and the Lilburn Residence Trust.

RITA ANGUS COTTAGE 1877

194a Sydney Street West

The garden will be open.
Visitors are encouraged to stay and sketch the abundant array of flowers and plant life that surround the cottage where Rita Angus lived between 1955 and 1970, providing her with much inspiration and subject matter.

Thorndon Trustees and volunteer gardeners will be on hand, with drawing materials and reproductions of some of Rita's garden artworks.
Hosted by the Thorndon Trust and their volunteer gardeners.

